Property Introduction

This end-of-terrace cottage has beautiful gardens with a constantly changing array of flowers and plants blooming throughout the seasons and also features a summerhouse.

Dating back to the 1700's, the cottage is located in the popular village of Ponsanooth and features a kitchen/diner with Shaker style cupboards and a charming lounge/diner featuring a beamed ceiling together with an inglenook fireplace housing a multi-fuel stove. There are three bedrooms and a modern shower room on the first floor.

To the side of the property is a useful utility boot room/WC which is accessed from the outside and there is a private parking area providing space for several vehicles together with the stunning garden and a greenhouse.

Location

Ponsanooth is a sought after village with a good range of facilities, these include the village Primary School, Public House, Post Office/general stores, playing field and the beautiful Kennal Vale - formerly a gun powder works, now maintained by the Cornwall Wildlife Trust as a nature reserve which is a wonderful place to walk. All of these are within easy access of this home.

One of the attractions of Ponsanooth is its convenient location being a popular village with a lovely community feel. The village is almost centralised for the the towns of Falmouth and Redruth, being both five miles distant and Penryn the nearest town, is just three miles distant. The three towns offer a further range of shopping, commercial and schooling facilities and the City of Truro, the administrative and commercial centre of Cornwall, is seven miles distant having a mainline Railway Station connecting to London Paddington.
