School Lane
Radford Semele Leamington Spa

Property Description

Situated in the highly sought after village of Radford Semele, this three bedroom terrace property presents excellent opportunity for buyers looking to add their own stamp to a property, offering great scope for modernisation.

The accommodation briefly comprises a welcoming entrance hallway leading through to the spacious fitted kitchen and open plan lounge diner, ideal for both relaxing and entertaining. To the rear a light and airy conservatory provides additional space and overlooks the garden. There is also a useful store room, formerly the garage (garage door no longer present), offering practical storage solutions and utility space housing the washing machine/dryer.

Upstairs, the property features three well proportioned bedrooms, the master benefiting from fitted wardrobes, a family shower room and the added convenience of a separate W.C.

Externally the home benefits from a small driveway providing off road parking, along with a private, low maintenance rear garden - perfect for outdoor enjoyment. The property also benefits from solar panels, contributing to improved energy efficiency.

An ideal purchase for first time buyers, families or investors and those looking to add their own stamp to a property.
