St. Andrews Road, South Church, DL14 6RY

This beautifully refurbished home offers a perfect blend of character and contemporary living. Finished to a high standard throughout, the property has been re-plastered and redecorated, featuring a brand new shaker style kitchen complete with a built-in oven, ceramic hob, and classic butler sink, and the added convenience of a ground floor W/C.

The welcoming lounge includes an attractive bay window and an inglenook fireplace with a charming oak beam, ideal for a wood-burning stove or feature fire to be fitted. Karndean flooring flows seamlessly across the entire ground floor, complementing the newly fitted solid wood internal doors. Upstairs, you will find a new bathroom boasting a rainfall shower over the bath along with a stylish vanity unit housing the sink and hidden cistern w/c, two generously sized double bedrooms have been freshly decorated and fitted with new carpets, providing comfortable and modern accommodation.

The home benefits from updated electrics along with USB sockets and a Viessmann combi boiler with 7 years of guarantee remaining, ensuring peace of mind. Externally, the property features a beautifully maintained front garden with a neat lawn and manicured hedging, while to the rear, a private, south-facing patio offers an ideal outdoor space. A detached garage and additional parking space directly across the lane complete this fantastic home, making it ideal for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors alike.

South Church is particularly well-placed for commuters, with strong transport links via the A688 and nearby Bishop Auckland railway station, providing direct connections to Darlington and beyond. The area enjoys excellent access to local amenities, including shops, supermarkets, cafes, Golf club and reputable schools, along with plenty of green space and walking routes, ideal for those who enjoy outdoor pursuits. Bishop Auckland itself is steeped in history and home to attractions such as Auckland Castle, and Kynren open-air show.
