DC Lane welcomes this distinguished period residence, beautifully curated to unite timeless architectural character with refined contemporary living, enviably positioned along a prestigious Peverell Park Road.

The home's elegance is unmistakable with the hallway's stripped floorboards, soaring ceilings and intricate corning creating a sense of heritage and grandeur, setting the tone for the exquisite interiors beyond. The lounge is superbly proportioned, a modern woodburner sits gracefully within a period fireplace, while a decorative ceiling and square bay window bathe the room in natural light. The showstopping kitchen/dining room is undeniably the heart of the home boasting an extensive range of quality cabinetry, substantial central island, range style cooker and ample space for a statement table. French doors open onto the garden terrace, effortlessly blending indoor outdoor living, ideal for summer soirées or relaxed weekend brunches. A utility room with garden access leads to a convenient shower room. Ascending the staircase with elegant carpet rods, the first floor reveals three beautifully presented bedrooms. The principal is particularly generous, a further spacious double bedroom and a well proportioned third are served by a luxurious family bathroom, complete with a contemporary freestanding egg bath and twin basins, a serene sanctuary in which to unwind. The second floor hosts a spectacular loft room spanning the footprint of the property. Flooded with light from Velux windows, it enjoys far reaching roofscape views of Plymouth towards The Sound and offering remarkable versatility as a gym, bedroom or home office. The low maintenance rear garden provides a tranquil retreat, mature bamboo and flowering jasmine create natural screening, while a patio terrace is a secluded haven perfectly suited for alfresco dining,

This exceptional residence presents an opportunity to acquire a home of enduring character, contemporary luxury and undeniable distinction
