

Ivy Cottage 66 Hot Lane

Biddulph Moor, ST8 7JT

Offers in excess of £450,000

Carters are delighted to present this charming detached stone cottage, occupying a wonderful semi-rural position in Biddulph Moor with far-reaching countryside views. Beautifully combining traditional character with modern comforts, the property benefits from underfloor heating throughout, exposed oak beams, feature stonework and quality finishes.

An attractive stone porch with an arched oak door opens into the welcoming dining room, featuring parquet flooring, a log-burning stove and bespoke oak staircase. The spacious living room centres around an impressive Inglenook fireplace and flows into an oak-framed conservatory, perfectly positioned to enjoy the surrounding views. A separate study provides an ideal home-working or reading space.

The country-style kitchen features wooden Shaker cabinetry, a ceramic Edinburgh sink overlooking Trough Stone Hill, double oven, hob, integrated dishwasher and space for an American-style fridge/freezer. A walk-in pantry, separate utility room and guest cloakroom complete the ground floor.

Upstairs are two generous double bedrooms with built-in storage and beautiful rural outlooks. The principal bedroom also features an exposed stone wall, while the stylish family bathroom boasts solid marble flooring, a walk-in shower, vanity unit and freestanding bath.

Outside, the property enjoys a delightful garden with a vegetable patch, stone-paved seating area and superb views across the Staffordshire countryside. Oak bi-fold gates provide access to secure off-road parking and a useful outdoor store.

Despite its peaceful setting, the cottage is within walking distance of two village pubs, a local shop and Post Office, village hall and bus route, with a first school also just down the lane.

A truly characterful countryside home in a fantastic village setting.
