Adjoining the main living accommodation, the conservatory is a particularly useful addition, with extensive glazing allowing plenty of natural light and making the most of the outlook across the garden and surrounding farmland. With direct access onto the garden, it offers flexibility as an additional sitting area, a place to relax or somewhere to enjoy the views throughout the seasons.

To the first floor are three bedrooms, comprising two doubles and a further single bedroom, together with a shower room fitted with a shower enclosure, wash basin and WC. The accommodation provides a practical arrangement for families, couples requiring additional space or those looking for a home with room to adapt over time.

Outside, the property occupies a pleasant position within the close, with a lawned front garden and a block-paved driveway providing off-street parking. The driveway extends alongside the house to a detached garage, offering useful storage and further potential for those requiring additional space for hobbies or equipment.

The rear garden is predominantly laid to lawn, with paved seating areas and timber fencing to the boundaries. Its position backing onto open farmland is a real feature, with uninterrupted views across the fields creating a more open feel than might ordinarily be expected from a property of this type. The garden provides a good amount of outdoor space, with plenty of opportunity for a new owner to landscape or improve it to their own requirements.

Offering well-proportioned accommodation, a detached garage, driveway parking and an attractive open aspect to the rear, 47 Oakwood Close presents an opportunity to acquire a three bedroom home with considerable scope to add a personal touch, in a setting where the outlook is undoubtedly one of its strongest assets.
