

Parkhouse Street, SE5

£650,000

A beautifully renovated three bedroom Victorian garden flat offering close to 1,000 sq ft of refined living space in the heart of SE5. The property combines period character with contemporary design, centred around an impressive open plan kitchen and reception room with direct access to a private garden. Thoughtfully finished throughout, it is a home designed equally for modern living and entertaining.

Parkhouse Street sits between Peckham and Camberwell, two of south east London's most vibrant and evolving neighbourhoods. Peckham Rye station also provides fast and convenient links into London Bridge, Victoria and the Overground network.

Parkhouse Street, SE5

Entry is through a traditional Victorian frontage into a generous central hallway that immediately creates a sense of space and light. To the front are two well proportioned double bedrooms, both finished in calm neutral tones with large sash windows. A third bedroom offers flexibility as a nursery, study or guest room. To the rear, the home opens dramatically into a superb open plan kitchen and reception space beneath oversized skylights that flood the room with natural light throughout the day. The navy shaker kitchen and large central island create a strong focal point, while full width doors lead directly onto a private landscaped garden. Additional basement storage adds further practicality.
