Garthorne Road, SE23

A charming Victorian terrace offering three bedrooms in a highly desirable location. Beautifully presented throughout, the property boasts an abundance of character and period charm, complemented by a bright west-facing garden. Full of potential, it also offers scope to extend (STPP).

A charming three bedroom period home offering generous proportions and a balanced layout across two floors. The ground floor features a bright reception room and a separate dining room, both benefitting from high ceilings and beautiful original wooden floors that enhance the sense of character throughout. To the rear, the kitchen and W.C with direct access to the west facing garden, creating a practical and sociable flow ideal for entertaining. Upstairs, the first floor comprises three well sized bedrooms, each filled with natural light and featuring attractive fireplaces that add further period charm. A family bathroom completes the floor.

Garthorne Road is a highly desirable, leafy residential street close to excellent green spaces including Horniman Museum and Gardens and Blythe Hill Fields. It is well connected via Honor Oak Park and Forest Hill stations, offering quick links into Central London on the London Overground. The area also benefits from a wide range of shops, cafés, and restaurants in nearby Forest Hill and Honor Oak, as well as access to well-regarded local schools.
