Located within the highly regarded village of Fritwell, this exceptional two bedroom detached bungalow has been beautifully reimagined to offer contemporary living with impeccable style throughout. Unfolding over 818 Sq.Ft, the property offers a series versatile living spaces which are synonymous with modern day living.

The central entrance hallway immediately creates a sense of space and light and sets the tone for the remainder of the tour. At the front of the plan is the main reception room where glazed French doors create a seamless interaction between the internal and external spaces. The modern, well-equipped kitchen has been finished to a high standard and provides ample storage and work top space. A tranquil conservatory adds flexibility and is currently being utilised as an additional dining area.

The design-led interiors continue into the two double bedrooms which occupy the left of the plan. Both bedrooms are serviced by a modern shower room.

Outside, the attractive garden provide a private retreat, ideal for entertaining or peaceful enjoyment, whilst the detached garage and driveway parking add further practicality.

Perfectly balanced, this exquisite home presents a rare opportunity to acquire a turnkey home in one of North Oxfordshire's most desirable village settings.
