Victor Road
Offers In Excess Of £800,000

This charming end-of-terrace Victorian home is ideally positioned on the ever-popular Victor Road in Windsor, a quiet residential street well placed for local schools, amenities and the town centre. The property offers four well-proportioned bedrooms arranged over the upper two floors. There is a double reception room retaining a wealth of period character, providing generous and versatile entertaining areas. To the rear, the house has been extended to create a fully fitted kitchen/breakfast room. The open plan Kitchen area opens via bi-folding doors onto a private rear garden

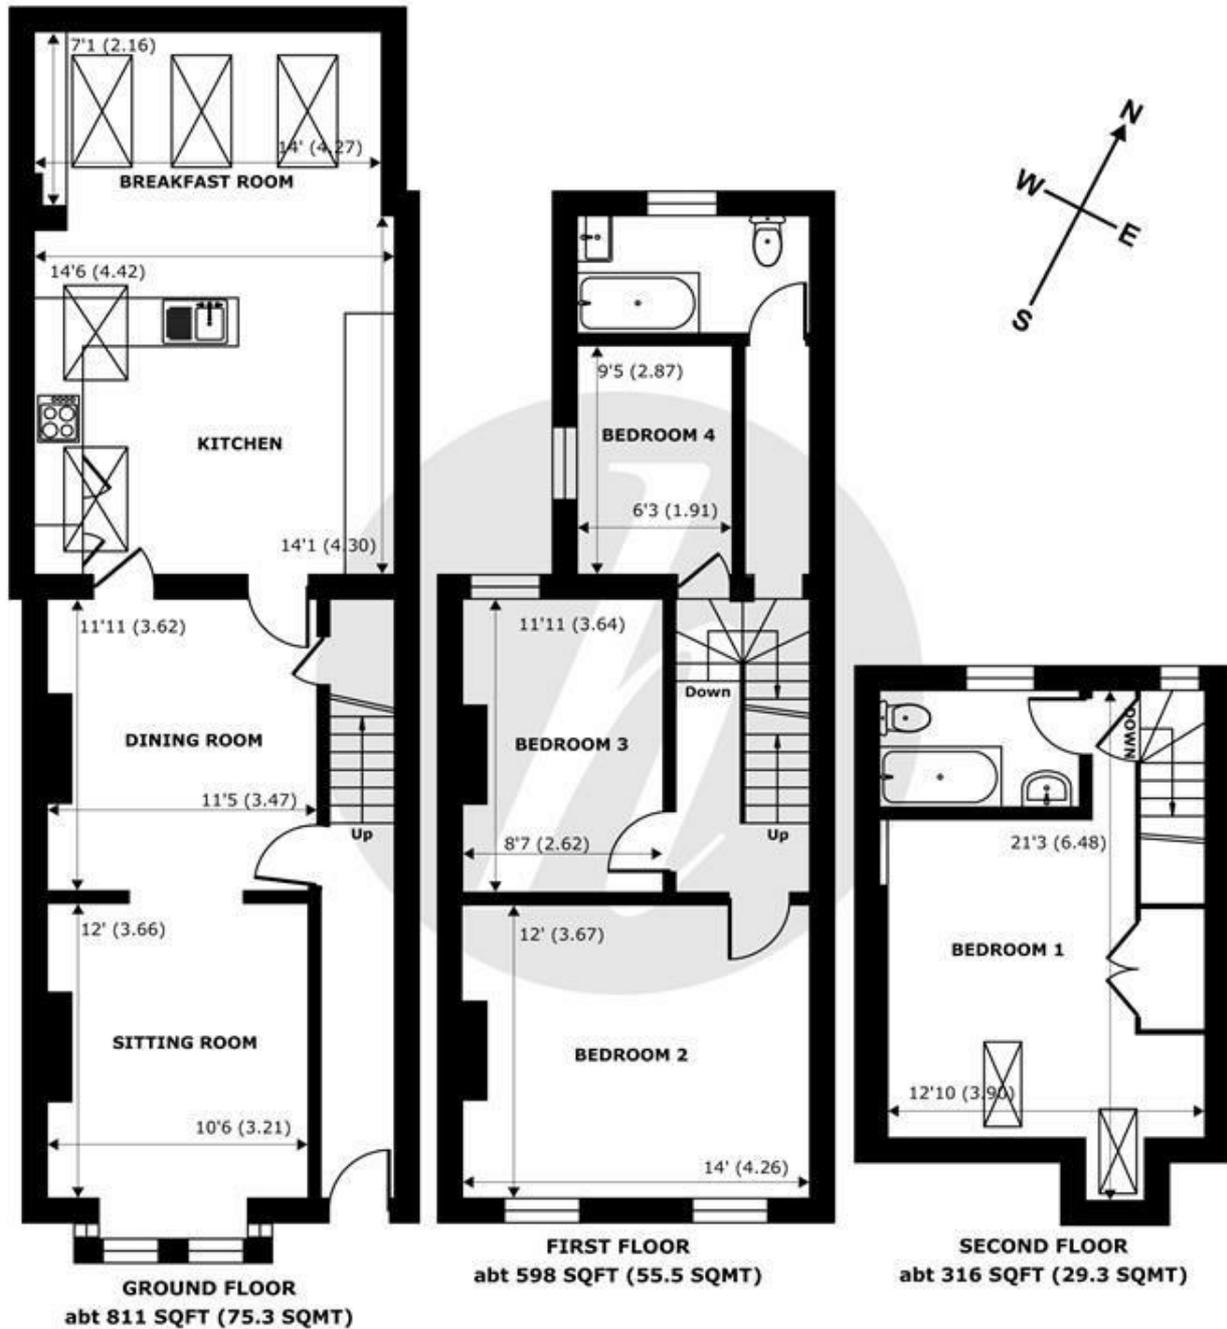

Further benefits include a no onward chain position and potential to extend further (subject to the necessary planning permissions).
