BURY ST EDMUNDS

Garden House Lane, Rickingham, Diss IP22 1EA

This attractive and extended 1940s family home sits on a generous plot and offers highly versatile accommodation arranged over three well-proportioned floors.

The ground floor opens into a welcoming entrance hall, leading to an elegant sitting room featuring a charming bay window and character fireplace. Additional reception spaces include a separate study and a spacious family room, providing flexible living options for modern family life. The heart of the home is the kitchen and dining room which offer an open plan aspect but can also be used as separate rooms and are complemented by a walk-in larder and adjoining utility room, while a downstairs cloakroom completes the ground floor layout.

The first floor features a generous landing with built-in storage, a well-appointed principal bedroom benefiting from a four-piece en-suite bathroom and walk-in dressing room, three further bedrooms, and a four-piece family bathroom. The second floor offers two additional double bedrooms, both with built-in storage and served by a contemporary shower room.

Externally, a private driveway provides ample off-road parking for several vehicles and leads to a garage with power and lighting. The rear garden is a particular highlight, being secluded and fully enclosed and featuring mature trees and established shrubs, creating a peaceful setting. A paved patio area offers an ideal space for outdoor entertaining, while the lawn provides an attractive and practical family garden.

Please note: There is an approved planning application for the field opposite, details can be found under reference DC/21/05923. The title also includes a public footpath.
