Enjoying a sought-after position in the heart of Burnham, this beautifully presented three-bedroom semi-detached home backs directly onto picturesque allotments and is within walking distance of the historic High Street, River Crouch waterfront, and the railway station with direct links to London Liverpool Street.

The deceptively spacious accommodation comprises a welcoming entrance hall, a comfortable living room, cloakroom, and a stylish kitchen/dining room overlooking the attractive rear garden. Upstairs are three generous double bedrooms, one benefiting from delightful views across the allotments, together with a contemporary refitted shower room. A new gas combi boiler was fitted in 2025.

Outside, the beautifully landscaped rear garden provides a peaceful and colourful setting, while the front of the property offers off-road parking and access to a garage.

Burnham-on-Crouch is a picturesque town on the banks of the River Crouch, a renown yachting and sailing centre hosting the famous 'Burnham Week' at the end of August. The town has a population of a little over 9,500 and is the principal settlement in the Dengie peninsula. Consequently it boasts many amenities that are uncommon in small towns including two primary schools and an academy secondary school, independent cinema, Burnham yacht harbour/marina, several boatyards, three yacht clubs (including the Royal Corinthian & Royal Burnham), two supermarkets and numerous individual shops, public houses and restaurants. There is a railway station on the Southminster branch line with direct commuter trains into London Liverpool Street (at peak times). The Burnham-on-Crouch Golf Club, founded in 1923, is situated in Creeksea on the outskirts of Burnham and enjoys breathtaking views over the Crouch Valley and River Crouch.
