Corrie, with its attractive shoreline, small harbour and traditional cottages, is home to the popular Corrie Hotel and Mara Fish Bar & Deli, adding to the appeal of this vibrant little coastal community. Sannox offers a quieter, more rural setting beneath the imposing backdrop of the surrounding hills and mountains. Sannox Bay provides a beautiful stretch of shoreline, with a peaceful beach framed by dramatic mountain scenery, making it a wonderful spot for walks, wildlife watching or simply enjoying the ever-changing views across the Firth of Clyde. Together, Corrie and Sannox offer a wonderful balance of coastal living, countryside and easy access to some of Arran's most spectacular walks and scenery.

The Isle of Arran is a place where you can find a little bit of everything you could ever want from a Scottish island: an ever-changing coastline, dramatic mountain peaks, sheltered beaches, verdant forests, vibrant cultural events and a wealth of excellent local produce. Often described as "Scotland in miniature", Arran offers an exceptional lifestyle, combining outstanding natural beauty with a welcoming community and all the essentials for day-to-day living.

Brodick, approximately 20 minutes' drive to the south, provides a range of local amenities, including shops, restaurants and leisure facilities, as well as a primary school with early years classes. Secondary education is available in Lamlash, with pupils travelling there daily by bus.
