4 Bedroom House - Detached located in Huddersfield

An impressive stone built detached residence constructed circa 1984 by Neil Jowett Limited to a high specification. The property occupies a large sloping plot with terraced gardens to rear, splendid open views, raised sun patio areas. The property has gas fired central heating, upvc double glazing and a security system. It is conveniently situated close to junction 24 of the M62 motorway, and within commuting distance for Leeds, Manchester and West Yorkshire conurbations. A small office has been created underneath the snug with its own external access. There is useful sub floor storage with the house. The summer house provides an ideal relaxation area with a useful attached gardener's wc.
