Reepham THE LOCAL AREA

Reepham is a small, beautiful market town, dating back to just after the Norman conquest. At the heart of the town lies the Market Place which is surrounded by a collection of historical buildings, mostly 18th century.

Quaint and vibrant there is plenty to enjoy within the Market Place, the 17th century coaching inn 'The Kings Arms' has wholesome pub food and 'The Dial House' is a lovingly restored Georgian country home with an award winning café/restaurant, elegant dining and a boutique hotel.

If you enjoy browsing and shopping, there is a good selection of independent shops selling everything from gifts, treats, antiques, clothes and art. For all your amenities there is everything you need from convenience stores, supermarkets and a family butchers.

Reepham sits between the Bure and Wensum valleys, the town is surrounded by nature, open fields and countryside perfect for peace, quiet and well-being.

A collection of detached freehold bungalows for the over 75's on a landscaped and maintained development in this popular and historic market town. This is phase 2 of a popular development with 15 units in Phase 1 built, sold and occupied.

You will own your home outright, On site (not remote) will be a team of carers who can offer variable levels of care as you require going forward.

2 hours a week of care is included and this can be domestic help if care is not required.

You will have access to a 24/7 call system should you need and this will be covered locally, not remotely, by members of the care team.

New for 2026 will be a hub/bistro for all residents to enjoy - this will provide a care suite, bistro offering complimentary hot drinks and a slice of cake and a selection of meals to eat in or for takeaway/delivery on site. A clubroom will provide a space to congregate and enjoy social events and for prospective new residents to meet and greet the care and sales team etc.
