- TWO BEDROOM FIRST FLOOR FLAT
- HISTORIC GRADE II LISTED BUILDING
- CLOSE PROXIMITY TO BRIGHTON MAINLINE STATION
- ALLOCATED PARKING BEHIND ELECTRIC GATES
- CENTRAL BRIGHTON LOCATION
- SHORT ONWARD CHAIN

Set within the heart of Brighton with views of the Pavilion, The Old Court House is a striking and characterful Grade II listed building that effortlessly blends period charm with contemporary fittings. Positioned where Kempdown meets the Old Steine, this landmark building enjoys an enviable central location within easy walking distance of the seafront, the Lanes, and Brighton's vibrant cultural, retail, and dining scene.

Behind its impressive façade, The Old Court House offers generously proportioned accommodation with high ceilings, elegant architectural details, and a strong sense of heritage throughout. Modern double glazing on the large windows provides plenty of light whilst maintaining a surprisingly quiet setting for such a central location. The accommodation offers a large sitting/dining room, separate kitchen, two large double bedrooms, and a spacious bathroom.

The location is truly exceptional, with Brighton Train Station just 15 minutes' walk away, providing convenient access to Gatwick and London. The nearby Old Steine bus exchange offers quick and easy access to all parts of Brighton and the surrounding areas. The flat includes a designated parking space accessed through a coded gate, providing valuable off-street parking. The Old Court House represents a compelling blend of history, prominence, and future potential in the very heart of the city.
