Set within the heart of Tedburn St Mary, this beautifully extended family home offers the perfect balance of village life and modern convenience. Surrounded by the Devon countryside yet just 15 minutes from Exeter and only 10 minutes from Crediton, it's an ideal location for those wanting a slower pace of life without feeling isolated. The village itself has everything many buyers are looking for, including a primary school, two popular pubs, a village store and excellent road links, with a bus service providing access to secondary schooling in Crediton.

The current owners have transformed what was once a traditional village house into a home designed around modern family living. The standout feature is undoubtedly the superb kitchen and dining room, where rooflights and wide doors flood the space with natural light and create a wonderful connection with the garden.

The adjoining utility room is cleverly tucked away around the corner, keeping the practical side of family life out of sight, whilst the open layout flows naturally into a versatile dining, study or hobby area before leading through to the cosy living room with its wood-burner. Together, these spaces create a home that's equally suited to busy family life, entertaining friends or simply relaxing at the end of the day. Upstairs are three bedrooms served by a stylish modern shower room, whilst downstairs a cloakroom adds further practicality.

Outside, the south-facing rear garden has been designed to be easy to maintain whilst still providing plenty of space for outdoor dining, summer barbecues and relaxing in the sunshine. To the front, the property enjoys pleasant views across neighbouring greenery towards the surrounding countryside, together with the benefit of a garage. Offering far more than first meets the eye, this is a home that successfully combines contemporary living with the warmth and character of a traditional Devon village, all at a price point that's increasingly difficult to find.
