Key Features

This four-bedroom semi-detached period home offers a mix of character, space, and practicality, set within a well-regarded area of West Bridgford. The location is a key advantage, with local shops, cafés, green spaces, and well-regarded schools all within easy reach, as well as good access into Nottingham City Centre. Parking is on-road permit parking, in keeping with the character of the area. A well-balanced home in a popular setting, offering space and flexibility for a range of buyers.

Arranged over three floors, the property provides flexible accommodation suited to modern family life. The ground floor features two reception rooms that can be used to suit a range of needs, alongside a well-sized kitchen diner that works well as the main hub of the home. A separate utility room adds convenience, and a cellar offers useful additional storage.

The first floor includes two good-sized bedrooms, served by both a main bathroom and a separate shower room. On the second floor, two further double bedrooms provide extra space for family, guests, or home working.

Outside, the west-facing rear garden enjoys afternoon and evening sun, creating a pleasant outdoor space that's easy to maintain.

A well-balanced home in a popular setting, offering space and flexibility for a range of buyers.
