Description

Situated on Wathen Road, within the conservation area of Dorking town centre, this superb ground-floor apartment forms part of a converted Victorian house and combines period character with modern living. Offering a share of the freehold and its own private paved rear garden, the property presents an appealing opportunity for those seeking a stylish and manageable home in a highly convenient location.

The accommodation opens into a welcoming sitting room, featuring a striking fireplace with wood-burning stove and fully refurbished sash windows, which beautifully complements the period character of the property. The open-plan kitchen and breakfast room flows naturally through from the dining room, creating a versatile and sociable space for both everyday living and entertaining.

The well-proportioned bedroom benefits from direct access into the rear garden, creating a lovely connection between the indoor and outdoor spaces. The modern bathroom completes the accommodation.

Outside, the paved rear garden offers a private and peaceful space for relaxing or enjoying outdoor dining with the convenience of an access gate. Resident permit parking is also available, adding further convenience.

With its period features, modern finish, private rear garden, and share of freehold, this apartment would make an excellent first-time purchase or an ideal choice for those looking to downsize without compromising on style, outdoor space or location.

Situation

Wathen Road is ideally situated within easy walking distance of Dorking High Street, offering an excellent selection of independent shops, boutiques and cafés alongside well-known retailers including Waitrose, Sainsbury's and Marks & Spencer. The town also provides a diverse choice of restaurants, coffee shops, traditional pubs and everyday amenities, making it a convenient and enjoyable place to live.

Beyond the town centre, Dorking is surrounded by the beautiful Surrey Hills countryside, providing exceptional opportunities for walking, cycling and enjoying the outdoors. Box Hill, Leith Hill, Ranmore Common, Norbury Park and Holmwood Common are all within easy reach, while nearby Denbies Wine Estate offers a popular destination to explore throughout the year.

Dorking also has a strong cultural and leisure offering, with the Dorking Halls providing theatre and cinema facilities, together with Dorking Sports Centre offering a wide range of sporting and recreational amenities.

The town is served by three railway stations, providing convenient connections to London, Guildford and destinations to the south. The combination of an established town centre, excellent access to the Surrey Hills and convenient transport links makes Dorking an appealing place to live, with Wathen Road particularly well positioned to enjoy all that the area has to offer.
