THE SETTING:

Castleford is a bustling market town with lots to offer. The public transport networks allow access to the neighbouring cities of Leeds and York, within as little as 25 minute, and the A1(m) and M62 motorway links are there or thereabouts on the doorstep for those wishing to commute. Castleford also has lots of primary and high schools. Hugh Street is within walking distance to the town centre and railway station, its ideally positioned for first time buyers or young families to be able to get to work and school easily which makes it a popular place to live.

THE PROPERTY:

As you enter the property you're greeted with a welcoming living room with a large window allowing for lots natural light and ample space for furniture. The staircase runs up the middle of the property and to the rear is a modern dining kitchen which features a range of base and wall units, grey slab doors with complimentary handles. This kitchen also benefits from and integral oven, gas hob with extractor above, integral fridge freezer, space and plumbing for a washing machine and a dining area with space for a family dining table. There is a handy pantry style storage cupboard and a UPVC gives access to the enclosed rear garden.

Upstairs this house has plenty of space for family living. The master bedroom is generous in size and features a handy storage cupboard perfect to use as a wardrobe, the current owners have made use of the alcove with a desk which would be perfect for anyone working from home. The second bedroom is a single room with space for bed and wardrobe, then there is access up to the loft via a staircase in this bedroom. The loft space has Velux windows allowing for natural light and is currently used as an occasional bedroom as it has ample space for furniture. The house bathroom is modern with space for storage and features a three piece white suite with shower over the bath and complimentary matte black tiles surrounding.
