

Naldrett Close, Horsham, West Sussex, RH12 4UG

A peaceful cul-de-sac setting, a fantastic west-facing garden and Horsham town centre within easy reach - this beautifully presented two-bedroom terrace home offers a great combination of convenience, style and practicality.

Situated just off Rusper Road in a popular residential area to the north of Horsham, the property is particularly well placed for commuters, with both Horsham and Littlehaven mainline stations within easy walking distance. Local shops are also close at hand, while the wider attractions of Horsham are easily accessible, from its attractive parks and green open spaces to independent boutiques, major retailers such as John Lewis, Lidl and Aldi, and an excellent choice of pubs, bars and restaurants.

One of the property's standout features is undoubtedly the private west-facing rear garden, which has been cleverly transformed into a low-maintenance outdoor entertaining space. Large-format patio tiles provide plenty of room for seating and dining, while modern fencing gives the garden a smart, contemporary feel. A rear access gate adds further practicality, and the westerly aspect means it is perfectly positioned to make the most of the afternoon and evening sunshine. It is a garden designed for enjoying rather than maintaining.

The sense of space continues inside, where the accommodation has been finished in bright, neutral tones to create a fresh and welcoming home. At the heart of the property is a generous living room, offering plenty of flexibility for relaxing and entertaining, with soft carpeting and stairs rising to the first floor. From here, the accommodation opens into a spacious kitchen-diner, fitted with accent cabinet lighting, a modern range of wall and base units, fitted Neff oven, electric hob, and dishwasher, together with space for a freestanding washing machine and fridge-freezer.

To the rear of the ground floor, with sliding glazed doors leading out to the back garden is a small conservatory with solid roof- a perfect spot with a variety of uses, as a small seating area, a study space, for workouts or even just to add additional storage if required. An entrance porch provides a practical arrival space, with a useful store cupboard housing the modern gas-fired combi boiler.

Upstairs, the accommodation is equally well considered. The principal bedroom is a particularly generous double room, with a full wall of fitted wardrobes, under-window drawers and an additional over-stairs cupboard, offering an impressive amount of storage without compromising on floor space. The second bedroom sits at the rear of the property and also benefits from over stairs storage cupboards, making it a versatile room that could equally suit a guest bedroom, nursery or home working space. A part boarded loft with ladder access offers additional storage.

Outside, the front of the property is approached via a pathway through an attractive lawned area with planted borders, while the quiet cul-de-sac setting gives the home a pleasingly private feel. Parking is also well catered for, with an allocated space in a nearby parking area and additional communal spaces available directly in front of the properties.

With its excellent rail connections, peaceful position, versatile accommodation and superb west-facing garden, this is a home that offers far more than its convenient Horsham location might initially suggest - a property that is ready to enjoy from day one.
