The First Viewings Are On Saturday 28th February 2026.

Tucked away just off Town Street, in the very heart of Farsley, 7 Oakwell Terrace enjoys a truly enviable position situated in Farsley Conservation area.. This vibrant and highly sought-after suburb has become a highly desirable place to live, celebrated for its independent bars and eateries, strong community feel and excellent local schools. From morning coffee to evening dining, everything Farsley is known for is quite literally on your doorstep.

With plenty of character and history, No. 7 originally formed part of Oakwell House, a substantial stone residence dating back to the late 19th century. Now occupying a portion of what was once a single, grand home, the property has period proportions and features that give it presence and plenty of charm.

Accessed from Oakwell Terrace through a timber gate, you are welcomed into a low-maintenance flagged front garden. A composite entrance door opens into a stunning open-plan kitchen diner, a wonderfully sociable space with impressive high ceilings and ample fitted cabinetry, ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. From here, the layout flows into the sitting room. The sitting room is an impressive and inviting space, enhanced by its high ceiling, ornate coving and a beautiful gas fire — perfect for cosy evenings in. A large set of French doors open directly onto the rear garden, flooding the room with natural light and creating a strong connection between inside and out.

A useful cellar is accessed from the kitchen diner.

A staircase rises from the kitchen diner to the first floor, where the landing leads to a generous principal bedroom, complete with fitted wardrobes and a large window overlooking the rear garden. As with much of the home, the room benefits from a high ceiling with decorative coving. A second bedroom and bathroom are also found on this level.

From the landing, a further staircase leads to the attic bedroom, a bright and versatile space featuring two large Velux windows — ideal as a third bedroom, home office or creative retreat.

Externally, the rear garden is a real highlight. Enjoying an east-facing aspect, it is spacious, with two lawns, well-stocked planted borders, space for a greenhouse and a timber shed. French doors from the sitting room make outdoor living effortless, while a gate at the bottom of the garden provides direct access onto Water Lane, offering yet another easy route into Farsley's fantastic amenities.

This is a home that perfectly blends period charm with practical living, all set within one of Leeds highly regarded suburbs and thriving communities. This is a great opportunity in a location that continues to go from strength to strength.
