Nookston Close Hartlepool TS26 0PG

A rarely available three bedroom detached bungalow occupying a pleasant corner position on the entrance into Nookston Close. The bungalow offers a generous plot with well cared for gardens, ample off street parking and hardstanding space ideal for a motor home. The deceptively spacious accommodation allows a great opportunity for those looking to downsize without compromising on space whilst current features include gas central heating and uPVC double glazing. The full layout comprises; entrance porch, through to a dual aspect lounge which leads into the dining room and through to the conservatory and kitchen. There are good size bedrooms which are served by the bathroom which incorporates a three piece suite. Externally is a lawned front garden with a long paved driveway running alongside the property providing ample off street parking. A further paved area provides hardstanding space ideal for a motor home/space for a garage. The enclosed rear garden offers privacy and enjoys a westerly aspect. Local amenities and transport links are well situated. An internal viewing comes recommended to appreciate the space, undoubted potential and position on offer.
