Moreton Cottage, Much Wenlock

www.nicktart.com

Much Wenlock is steeped in history. The town grew around a Monastery founded around 680AD which was replaced by a Priory, the ruins of which can still be seen. Attractions include a 16th century Guild Hall that houses a Saturday market and of course, the residence of Dr William Penny Brookes who founded the Olympic Games in 1850.

The town centre has a good range of shops, convenience stores and restaurants. There are both primary and secondary schools. The surrounding countryside is beautiful and unspoilt. Nearby is the Wenlock Edge, from which there are views across the Shropshire Plains in to Cheshire. Not far away, Telford has access to the M54 motorway and a rail link to London. The county town of Shrewsbury is within easy motoring distance.

A part-glazed entrance door opens into a small hall with quarry tiled floor and exposed ceiling beams. To the right is the conservatory with oak effect flooring and sliding door to the garden, the glass roof has purpose made blinds. Off the hallway, a part-glazed door leads to the dining area which has wood effect flooring and window looking towards the garden. To the right is a galley style kitchen with wooden work surface incorporating a drainer, Belfast sink, space for a fridge, cooker, washing machine and slimline dishwasher. There is a wall mounted Ideal logic Combi 30 central heating boiler. From the dining room, a step down leads to the sitting room which has exposed ceiling beam and brick recessed fireplace with beam above, tiled hearth and a DAZCO, gas, woodburning effect fire. There are two windows and the front door which opens to St Mary's Lane. There is also useful under stairs storage with coat hooks and light.

Turned stairs lead to the landing and the main bedroom which has a built-in wardrobe with storage above and window having views to the garden. The ensuite has a bath with electric shower over, WC, pedestal basin and airing cupboard. Bedroom two is a small double which also has an ensuite shower, WC and washbasin. There are several very useful built-in cupboards taking full advantage of the space available.

Outside to the side of the cottage is a parking space and a gate to the lovely cottage garden with meandering pathway through flower beds and gravelled seating areas.

No upwards chain.
