Description

A Victorian terraced house offering well-proportioned accommodation laid out over two floors. To the ground floor a door leads from the Entrance Vestibule to a Through Lounge/Dining Room with feature fireplace, stair to the first floor and further door through to the Kitchen. Here there are a range of modern units and a door out to the west facing rear courtyard. On the first floor are two bedrooms and a bathroom with modern white suite. The house benefits from UPVC double glazing and gas central heating and is offered for sale with no onward chain.

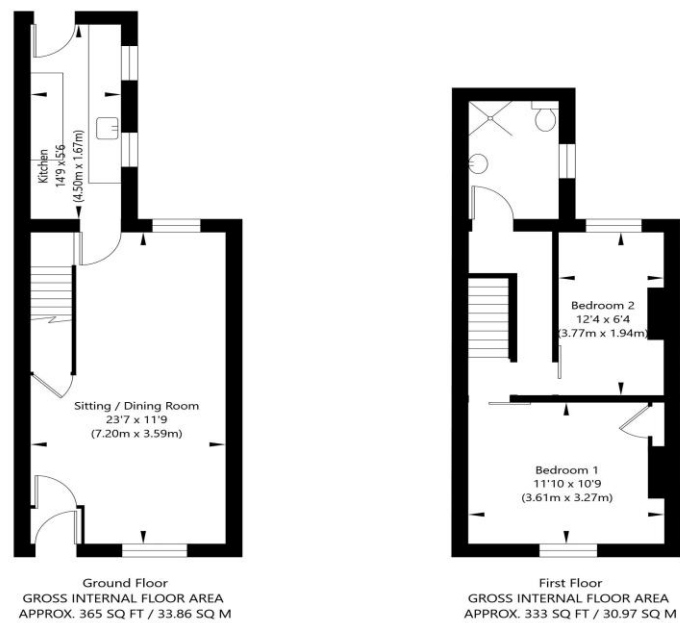

Location

Baker Street lies within the Burton Stone Lane area of York, one of the most popular areas of the city for first time buyers and investors. There are an excellent range of shops within close walking distance and easy access to the city centre, hospital and Nestle Rowntree site. Regular buses operate from the area and York railway station is only one mile to the south.
