STEPHENSON BROWNE

This spacious three-bedroom link-detached bungalow set is set in the desirable semi-rural village of Biddulph Moor, enjoying far-reaching views towards Mow Cop and Congleton Edge. Offered with no onward chain, the property features a private rear garden, ample off-road parking, an attached garage, and a newly installed heating system. The bungalow offers great potential for selective modernisation, enabling new owners to put their own stamp on an already charming home.

Coming into the property you are welcomed into the entrance hall with access to the kitchen and the garage/utility. The kitchen includes a range of fitted units with tiled splashbacks, a stainless-steel sink, and integrated appliances including a dishwasher, electric oven, built-in microwave, and four-ring electric hob with extractor.

A door opens into the split-level living/dining room, where a few steps lead up to the main seating area. A large picture window overlooks the rear garden, and a side door provides easy access into the rear garden.

From the inner hallway are the bathroom, separate WC, and three bedrooms. The bathroom includes a panelled bath with electric shower and screen, and a pedestal wash basin. Two bedrooms enjoy attractive views over the rear garden.

The property is approached via a generous driveway offering excellent off-road parking and access to the garage. To the right of the property sits a laid to lawn area, enclosed by a combination of hedging and low brick walls. A side path provides straightforward access to the rear garden.

The garage includes plumbing and space for a washing machine, fitted storage units, a front entrance door, and an additional side door leading to the garden. Steps from the house lead down to a sizeable patio area, ideal for outdoor seating and providing access to the oil tank. Further steps descend to a well-kept lawn bordered by mature shrubs and planted beds, creating a peaceful and private outdoor space.
