Introduction

Offered with no upward chain, this beautifully presented 17th Century townhouse has two bedrooms, two bathrooms, two reception rooms, kitchen and is situated in the heart of Ludlow town centre. It has been successfully run for the past few years as a holiday cottage.

Ludlow is famed for its vibrant culture, excellent food scene, and rich history. 26 Mill Street offers the perfect balance of peaceful living and easy access to everything this wonderful town has to offer.

Property Description

Go down the pretty beamed alleyway and open the front door on the right hand side and enter the charming world of Mill Street. Enter the hallway and opposite is the door to the dining room/snug, there is space for table and chairs. A sofa and comfy chairs are seated around the attractive inglenook fireplace with a log burning stove. The firewood is stored in the cellar, accessed from a door in the hallway. The door to the left of the fireplace leads to a well fitted kitchen: Floor and wall units are in addition to attractive open shelving, fitted cooker with induction hob, integral dishwasher and under counter fridge and washing machine. The window overlooks a private courtyard, with rear access door.

The first floor is accessed from the hall and leads to a charming sitting room, with original decorative fireplace, elm floorboards, and views over the pretty Mill Street with its mixture of architecture. Also on this floor is a large bathroom with Heritage style roll top bath with ball and claw feet, telephone style mixer taps which also provide overhead shower, pedestal wash hand basin and low-flush W.C. The walls are tiled with bespoke Mediterranean tiling giving the bathroom a feeling of opulence. Further stairs from the landing wind their way to the second floor and two double bedrooms, the master having an en-suite shower room. The property is laced with original and charming features and is bedecked with oak beams to both walls and ceilings. Internal viewing is highly recommended

Location

Mill Street is located in the heart of Ludlow's thriving town centre and within the Old Town Walls. Being on the doorstep to the town centre you will find a range of independent traders, shops and cafés with frequent open air markets, food festivals, events and the infamous Castle. Regarded as one of the best "foodie" towns in the country, and with some of the most beautiful buildings anywhere, which showcases how building forms have developed from the medieval period through to the 18th and 19th Century. Local allotments can also be found on Lower Mill Street subject to availability.

Transport facilities are brilliant with good road and rail links to all major towns and cities. Shrewsbury to the north and Hereford to the south are located approximately 25/30 miles away and offer extensive entertainment and leisure facilities and a wide range of national and chain stores. There is on-street parking outside the property for permit holders only. Permits are available through the local authority, at a cost of £100 per car, 200 hours of visitors parking can be obtained from Shropshire County Council at the cost of £5.00. The property is listed Grade II and located in Ludlow's Conservation area.
