Stover Court
Constructed in 2013 by award-winning retirement home specialists McCarthy Stone, Stover Court is a 'Retirement Living' development providing a lifestyle living opportunity for the over 55's and designed for independent living with the peace-of-mind provided by the day-to-day support of our excellent House Manager. The property partly converted from the old Hospital is ideally located within a very short walk of a Sainsbury's store, excellent Doctors Surgery, Pharmacy and the amenities of the Town Centre. The development enjoys excellent communal facilities including a homeowner's lounge, laundry, mobility scooter store and landscaped gardens with an attractive courtyard. All apartments are equipped with a 24-hour emergency call facility and sophisticated intercom system providing both a visual and verbal link to the main development entrance. There is also the excellent guest suite widely used by visiting family and friends for which a small charge per night applies.

It's so easy to make new friends and to lead a busy and fulfilled life at Stover Court; there are always plenty of activities to choose from bringing neighbours and friends together on a regular basis. Whilst there is something for everyone there is certainly no obligation to participate and home owners can throw themselves in to every activity or social gathering, or equally remain at private as they wish.

The Local Area
Newton Abbot is a historic market town surrounded by beautiful South Devon countryside. The town is home to a large range of shops, restaurants and open spaces and is perfectly located close to both Dartmoor National Park and a number of lively seaside towns. If you like shopping, there are a number of markets held throughout the week including an Outdoor Market held on a Wednesday and Saturday, a popular Indoor Pannier Market open Monday to Saturday and a weekly Produce Market held every Friday in Courtenay Street.

Newton Abbot provides access to some great parks and outdoor spaces. Decoy Country Park, Courtenay Park and Bakers Park can all be found within walking distance of the centre, as can the Town Quay and new bridge, which forms part of an extended cycle route. Within a short drive you'll find Stover Country Park and the Ted Hughes Poetry Trail. If you are looking to explore on foot, Newton Abbot sits part way along the Templer Way, a walking route tracing the 18 mile historic route granite took from the quarries at Haytor, Dartmoor, to the docks at Teignmouth.

Newton Abbot Train Station is on the main London line from Penzance to Paddington, and has connections to Torquay and Paignton. Local buses run between Exeter and Newton Abbot, and Torquay.

33 Stover Court
Situating on the first floor of Stover Court, Apartment 33 is a recently redecorated, west-facing apartment enjoying a convenient position close to the lift, providing easy access to all floors.

The generous living room offers plenty of space for comfortable seating and dining, with the well-equipped kitchen located just off the living area. The property benefits from two good-sized bedrooms, with the principal bedroom featuring a walk-in wardrobe and an en-suite bathroom complete with a level-access shower.

A further separate shower room provides additional convenience, while excellent storage is provided by the walk-in utility/store.

Recently redecorated throughout, this appealing apartment offers spacious and well-appointed accommodation, together with a desirable west-facing aspect and convenient location within Stover Court.
