Deceptively spacious and occupying a position within a tranquil, rural setting in the heart of the village of Hatherden, Kapala is a bespoke, extended four-double-bedroomed, detached bungalow that benefits from a very practical loft conversion. The property is surrounded by rolling farmland and further benefits from generous parking which includes a car port in front of an attached garage. Well-presented throughout, the accommodation comprises a hallway, a cosy, dual-aspect living room complete with a wood-burning stove, a good-sized, light and airy kitchen, a separate dining room, three ground-floor double bedrooms, one of which is currently used as a study and a utility room. A spiral staircase provides access to the loft conversion, which is arranged with a double bedroom and a shower room plus access to a spacious loft room. Outside, there are mature, practical gardens to both the front and the rear.

The property can be found on Hatherden Lane in the centre of the village of Hatherden, between the Old Bell & Crown public house and Christ church, three and a half miles north of Andover and on the southern edge of the North Wessex Downs National Landscape. The village of Hatherden is within the civil parish of Tangle, along with the neighbouring village of Wildhern and the hamlet of Charlton Down. Parish facilities include a village hall, sports pitches and The Fox Inn, as well as access to numerous public footpaths that allow exploration of the surrounding countryside. Andover offers a range of shopping, educational and recreational facilities, including a college of further education, a cinema, theatre and a leisure centre. The nearby A303 offers good road access to both London and the West Country, with the location lending itself perfectly to those who might need to commute into London via the train with a choice of available mainline stations within less than a half-hour drive (Great Bedwyn and Hungerford into Paddington in less than an hour or Andover into Waterloo in just over an hour).
