Stunning Riverside Home With Private 9-Metre Boating Pontoon, Offering Over 2,000 Sq Ft Of Elegant Living Space, With Excellent Connections To London Via Readings Elizabeth Line.

25 River Gardens is a stunning riverside property, which boasts over 2,000 sq ft of pristine, expansive living space. Carefully designed, the interior promotes an environment of relaxation and enjoyment, with a minimalist stone flooring flowing through the main reception room and kitchen on the ground floor. Exceptional river views can be appreciated from the reception room, enhanced by full-height fresh doors leading to the rear garden. The extraordinary kitchen features custom-designed Corian and marine-grade stainless steel units on castors, complete with top-notch Neff and Smeg appliances. Two full-height French doors invite you to the front garden, offering additional captivating river views. The property also includes a spacious bathroom, providing convenience and versatility to the property. On the upper floor, you will find a master bedroom with a dressing room and an en-suite shower room, providing a private sanctuary of comfort and style, it also has access to the delightful balcony overlooking the river, allowing you to fully appreciate the scenic surroundings. Four additional well-lit bedrooms one with ensuite on this level welcome an abundance of natural light through their large windows. The exterior of the property is just as impressive. The rear of the house features beautifully finished ipè wood decking leading to a versatile terraced area that can function as a badminton court. Hidden among the mature silver birch grove is a charming Airstream Bubble caravan, perfect for post-match refreshments or as a fun family hideaway. There are also two discreetly positioned sheds for bicycle and garden storage, along with specialised wall racking for kayaks. The wood decking continues at the front of the property, which leads through the stunning Ann Pearce-designed garden to the delightful riverbank and its 9-meter boating pontoon. The property offers a heat recovery ventilation system and has an EPC – C, Council Tax G. This is truly a gem for those seeking a luxurious, fun, and serene riverside living.
