Property Introduction

A beautifully refurbished mid-terraced character cottage, ideally situated close to the town centre and within easy reach of the railway station. Offered for sale with no onward chain, this charming home presents an excellent opportunity to acquire a character property finished to a high standard, complete with an enclosed rear lawned garden.

The accommodation features a welcoming lounge with an open granite fireplace and fitted cupboards, leading through to a separate dining area overlooking the rear garden and patio. The kitchen is well appointed with a range of fully fitted units and offers ample space for everyday living. Further accommodation includes a ground floor bathroom and three first-floor bedrooms. Additional benefits include double glazed windows and doors throughout, together with a gas-fired central heating system. Beautifully presented in true turnkey condition, this delightful home is ready for immediate occupation.

Location

Camborne is ideally situated for access to the very popular north coastal surfing beaches such as Portreath, Perranporth and St Agnes with the north coast renowned for its rugged vistas and delightful coastal walks. The city of Truro lies approximately fifteen miles distant, this being the main centre in Cornwall for business and commerce, it also offers a good range of high street multiples as well as a variety of local independent stores.

The attractive Georgian architecture and cobbled street access many restaurants and cafes and Truro is also home to the Hall for Cornwall located on the piazza. Within Camborne itself, there are local schools' places of worship and a mainline railway station that operates to London Paddington. The A30 is also accessible therefore making traveling to other areas of the county that much easier.
