About The Property

Looking for a charming country cottage with a lovely mix of character, modern touches and rural village living? This tastefully updated three-bedroom home in Cribyn offers cosy living space, a smart modern kitchen, off-road parking, an elevated rear garden and a timber cabin that would make a brilliant hobby room or home office.

Set in the pretty rural village of Cribyn, around five miles north of Lampeter, this delightful three-bedroom cottage has been tastefully modernised over the years while keeping plenty of the character that gives it such warmth. With off-road parking, an elevated garden, a useful timber cabin and countryside views from the front bedrooms, it has a lovely balance of cottage charm and practical day-to-day living.

The property is approached through gated access into the front yard, where slate paths and crushed slate areas create a smart, low-maintenance frontage. The red front door gives the house a classic cottage look from the roadside, and there is parking to the side for one vehicle.

The front door opens straight into the lounge/diner, a really appealing room with wooden flooring, exposed beams and a comfortable cottage feel. This space works well as both a sitting room and dining area, with enough room for sofas, a dining table and freestanding furniture. The fireplace is a standout feature, with a slate and tiled surround, wood-burning stove and a character bread oven to the side. There is also an original built-in glass-fronted cupboard, adding another period detail to the room. Stairs rise to the first floor from here, while steps and an opening lead through to the kitchen.

Details Continued:

The kitchen has been recently updated and brings a much more modern feel to the rear of the house. It is fitted with matching wall and base units, wood-effect worktops, a sink and drainer, a Quooker boiling water tap, an eye-level AEG electric oven and grill, AEG induction hob with extractor over, tiled flooring and space for a freestanding fridge/freezer. It is a smart, well-planned kitchen that feels bright and practical, with a door leading out to the rear garden area.

Also off the kitchen is a handy WC/utility room, fitted with a toilet and wash hand basin, with space and plumbing for a washing machine. The oil-fired boiler is also housed here, serving the hot water and central heating.

On the first floor, the landing gives access to three bedrooms, a shower room and a bathroom. The two front bedrooms are both good-sized doubles, each with wooden flooring and lovely views over open countryside to the front. The third bedroom sits to the rear and is a single room, looking out over the garden. This would work well as a child's room, occasional guest room, dressing room or study.

The bathroom is a particularly nice feature, finished with grey wall tiling, wood-effect flooring and a freestanding bath, along with a toilet and wash hand basin. There is also a separate shower room with a double shower, toilet and wash hand basin, which is a real plus for a three-bedroom cottage and makes the layout much more practical for family life or guests.

Externally:

Outside, a slate path leads around the side and rear of the house, giving good access to the back door and garden areas. Steps lead up to a slate patio where the timber cabin is positioned. This is a really useful extra space, fitted with power and lighting, double doors and currently used as a craft workshop. It would also make a lovely garden room, home office, studio or hobby space.

The rear garden sits elevated behind the house and is bordered by mixed tree hedging, giving it a green and tucked-away feel. There is a lawned garden area, two garden sheds to one side, one currently used as a wood store, and the oil tank is also located within this section of the grounds. A wooden gate to the far side gives access out to a track.

This is a beautiful country cottage with plenty of charm, a sensible layout and some lovely extras, particularly the timber cabin and elevated garden. A very appealing home for anyone looking for rural living without feeling too far removed from town facilities.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE AREA:

Cribbyn is a rural village not far from Cae Hir Gardens and approximately five miles from Lampeter, a well-known market town in the Teifi Valley. Lampeter has a good range of local services, including independent shops, cafes, a leisure centre, farmers market and everyday amenities, along with a strong sense of history as a university town. The wider area has a great network of walks and countryside routes, while the West Wales coast and the sandy beaches of Cardigan Bay are within driving distance.
