Tucked away in a quiet backwater of Nailsea and immediately bordering open countryside, this superbly presented home offers a wonderful blend of contemporary style, light-filled living and an enviable semi-rural setting.

First approached via a gravel driveway providing ample parking, the property is framed by an easy-maintenance front garden with lawn and patio seating, ideal for relaxing outdoors.

Stepping inside, an entrance lobby provides practical space for coats and shoes before opening into an impressive open plan kitchen and living room that forms the heart of the home. This bright and inviting space features a striking vaulted ceiling with an exposed beam, a series of windows and two sets of double doors that flood the room with natural light and create a seamless connection to the outside. The stylish kitchen is well equipped with integrated appliances, granite worktops and a breakfast bar, complemented by an adjacent area perfectly suited for a dining table. Ample storage is thoughtfully incorporated throughout.

The accommodation includes two bright and comfortable double bedrooms, both enjoying plenty of natural light, alongside an exceptional contemporary bathroom finished to a high standard. The property further benefits from owned solar panels, enhancing its efficiency and appeal.

Despite its peaceful setting, the home is just a short drive from Nailsea and Clevedon, offering an excellent selection of shops, cafés and restaurants, while the popular Blue Flame country pub is only a stone's throw away — making this an ideal home for those seeking both tranquillity and convenience. For those who travel further afield, Bristol Airport is roughly 15 minutes away.

A superbly presented, light-filled two bedroom home with vaulted open plan living, countryside setting, parking, solar panels and easy access to Nailsea and Clevedon.
