Description

Situated in the highly sought-after village of Horsford, this extended three-bedroom semi-detached home is presented in good decorative order throughout, making it an ideal choice for families.

The accommodation begins with a welcoming entrance hallway, featuring a staircase to the first floor and access to the majority of the ground floor rooms. From here, there is a modern cloakroom fitted with a two-piece suite comprising a low-level WC and hand wash basin. The dining room is a generous space measuring over 15 feet, offering a useful storage cupboard and an open-plan flow into the kitchen. The kitchen is well-equipped with a range of fitted units and roll-top work surfaces, and benefits from French doors opening onto the rear garden. A well-proportioned sitting room completes the ground floor, also featuring French doors that provide direct access to the garden, creating a bright and airy living space.

Upstairs, the first floor offers three good-sized bedrooms, all accessed from the landing, along with a modern family bathroom. The bathroom includes a panelled bath with shower over, low-level WC, and hand wash basin.

Outside

Externally, the property boasts a generous front driveway set back from the road, providing ample off-road parking.

To the rear, there is a private, mainly enclosed lawn garden bordered by timber fencing, along with a patio seating area and a paved side return.

Location

Horsford is a village 6 miles North of Norwich and is situated directly from the newly built NDR. Horsford benefits from a good range of shops, public houses, post office and has a split site Primary School. Surrounded by woodland and countryside this popular village also has a doctor's surgery, veterinary practice and good bus services.
