Accommodation

The property offers an impressive sense of space throughout, with thoughtfully arranged accommodation that flows effortlessly from room to room.

A welcoming entrance porch opens into a central hallway, setting the tone for the home’s inviting and well-proportioned interiors. The generous principal lounge is bathed in natural light, enhanced by an elegant bay window to the front and an additional side aspect. A charming period fireplace with decorative surround forms a delightful focal point, creating a warm and characterful living space.

The dining room, accessible from both the entrance hall and the conservatory, is equally appealing. A front-facing bay window frames views across the gardens, while a traditional open fire with tiled surround adds a touch of classic country charm—perfect for both intimate dinners and entertaining guests.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of units and enjoys a pleasant outlook into the conservatory, beautifully connecting the interior with the surrounding landscape and allowing light to flow freely between spaces.

To the rear, a highly practical utility room provides additional storage and functionality, complete with a large shelved airing cupboard and a separate W.C.

Positioned to the side of the property, the conservatory offers rural views and light-filled retreat—an ideal place to sit, unwind, and fully appreciate the picturesque setting throughout the seasons.

Externally

The property is approached via an attractive gated entrance, leading to a sweeping tarmac driveway that opens into a spacious parking and turning area. Here, twin garages and an entrance canopy provide both practicality and a welcoming first impression.

The grounds are a particular feature of the home, thoughtfully arranged to complement the surrounding countryside. A further gated access leads to a lower lawn, while well-stocked borders line the driveway, offering colour and seasonal interest throughout the year. A garden shed with adjoining lean-to potting area provides excellent space for gardening enthusiasts.

To the side of the property, a dedicated vegetable growing area presents an opportunity for a self-sufficient lifestyle, while the lawn continues to wrap gracefully around to the rear. A paved patio area offers the perfect setting for morning coffee or outdoor dining, alongside a useful hardstanding area and discreetly positioned oil tank.

Altogether, the outdoor space provides a harmonious blend of practicality and rural charm, ideal for both relaxation and cultivation.
