LOCATION

Port Isaac is a popular holiday destination and residential village in North Cornwall, famed for its historic fishing harbour, quaint winding streets and scenic coastal walks. Nearby, in Rock and Daymer Bay, conditions are ideal for sailing, water-skiing and windsurfing, as well as the renowned St Enodoc Golf Club offering two excellent 18-hole courses. Port Isaac has a number of good places to eat and drink, all within walking distance, including two of Nathan Outlaws eateries. Locally there are also a wealth of excellent restaurants and pubs including The Port Gaverne Hotel, Rick Stein's Seafood Restaurant and Paul Ainsworth's No. 6 in Padstow. The ferry and water taxi in Rock make travelling to Padstow both enjoyable and easy. Most everyday shopping requirements can be met in Port Isaac but the market town of Wadebridge, with an inspiring collection of independent shops, is only about 8 miles distant. The main line railway station is at Bodmin Parkway, approximately 17 miles and Newquay airport is approximately 20 miles.
