Location

Tisbury is the principal village in Wiltshire's exceptionally popular and highly sought-after Nadder Valley, surrounded by breathtaking rolling countryside that is widely regarded as offering some of the finest walking in the South of England. You will also find Messums Art Gallery on the rural edges of the village. The combination of stunning views and excellent local amenities has seen Tisbury recognised by The Sunday Times as one of the best places to live in the UK since 2014.

The picturesque and thriving High Street supports a vibrant community and offers a wide range of high-quality independent shops and services, including a butcher, solicitors, a highly regarded deli, hair salons, hardware shop, florist, post office, cafés, wine shop, pharmacist, dentist and doctors' surgeries. The village and surrounding area are also home to some of the finest restaurants and gastropubs in the South West. An excellent primary school is located within the village.

Inside the Home

A beautifully presented stone cottage located in the heart of Tisbury, a short stroll from the station and High Street. The property has been extended over the years and provides surprisingly generous ground floor accommodation, with sitting room featuring inglenook fireplace, orangery, kitchen/breakfast room. There is a bathroom on the ground floor and two bedrooms and a WC to the first floor.

Outside Space

May Cottage provides surprisingly good outside space with pretty walled garden which is south facing enjoying large paved patio with flower borders. There is also off road parking for the property
