

10, Chancery Lane, Bollington, Cheshire SK10 5BJ

A charming two-bedroom stone cottage, beautifully styled to create a warm and cosy atmosphere, enjoying stunning elevated views over the village and surrounding rolling hills. This delightful home retains much of its original character while benefiting from tasteful modern updates throughout.

Occupying a highly desirable position at the upper end of the village, the property is ideally located close to White Nancy and set within the sought-after Kerridge Conservation Area. It is also just a short stroll from Bollington's excellent range of local shops, traditional pubs, and popular eateries.

The accommodation briefly comprises a living room and a well-appointed kitchen to the ground floor. To the first floor are two bedrooms and a contemporary family bathroom. A further advantage is the fully boarded loft, complete with Velux window, power, and lighting, providing excellent additional storage space. Additional features include gas-fired central heating and uPVC double glazing throughout.

Externally, the property benefits from a shared York stone courtyard, offering ample space for outdoor seating and entertaining. There are also two useful outhouses and a substantial stone outbuilding.

Bollington is a village that never stands still, with a network of restaurants, delis, and bars all helping to combine to provide a wonderful local village atmosphere and a delight in which to live. There is a strong community feel throughout the area, which is infectious to visitors and residents alike. There is so much to do, with the village providing excellent walking, cycling, and riding routes in all directions.

A short journey away, Macclesfield has access to good transport links, including national motorways, major roads and train networks, including the West Coast Line direct to London. Manchester International Airport is only thirteen miles away by road.

Proceed out of Macclesfield along the Silk Road towards Bollington and at the second roundabout, take the third right towards Bollington. Proceed into the village and take the second turning on the right after South West Avenue into Grimshaw Lane. Continue under the aqueduct to the 'T' junction and then turn left into Chancery Lane where the property can be found on the right-hand side.
