This substantial four double bedroom Victorian freehold terraced house is offered to the market with no onward chain, presenting an exciting opportunity for families and buyers seeking generous living space across three floors.

The ground floor boasts an impressive double reception room featuring high ceilings, excellent natural light and a beautiful bay window that creates a wonderful entertaining and family space. To the rear, the fully fitted kitchen/dining room offers ample storage and worktop space alongside plenty of room for a large dining table. From here, doors lead directly onto a beautifully mature private garden, complete with established plants and shrubbery, creating the perfect setting for al fresco dining. A useful cellar provides valuable additional storage space. The first floor comprises two exceptionally generous double bedrooms alongside a huge family-sized bathroom with both bath and separate shower facilities, as well as the added convenience of a separate WC. Occupying the second floor are two further well-proportioned double bedrooms.

Southampton Way offers excellent access to Central London and the City via nearby Denmark Hill and Peckham Rye Stations. There are a number of independent cafés, restaurants and shops, while Burgess Park and Brunswick Park provide plenty of green open space nearby.
