The Property

Upon entering the property, you are welcomed by a spacious hallway with stairs rising to the first floor. A doorway leads into the front dining room, featuring a large double-glazed window and original wooden floor. This room opens into the adjoining lounge, complete with an original period feature fireplace and rear aspect window.

At the rear of the property sits a well-appointed fitted kitchen with slate floor tiles, featuring an integrated oven, and a gas hob set within a charming brick chimney breast. A rear window provides a pleasant outlook onto the private garden with external tap, and beyond the kitchen a practical utility/sun room offers direct access to the patio via a UPVC double glazed door.

Upstairs, the landing leads to two double bedrooms. The master is positioned at the front with fitted cupboards and an over stairs cupboard, while bedroom two includes a character original fireplace and rear aspect window. A good-sized family bathroom completes the accommodation.

The property also has a spacious loft which is part boarded and well insulated with built in ladder, lighting, and plenty of height to stand.

Outside, the generous private rear garden is mainly laid to lawn with a small patio ideal for seating. The front offers a low maintenance garden enclosed by a low level brick wall and gate.
