Priory Close House is situated within the scenic and sought after village of Cartmel, one of South Lakeland's oldest villages, which dates back to the 12th Century.

The village grew up around the now famous Priory and is full of Mediaeval charm. At the heart of the village is the square with the market cross, a water pump and limestone fish slabs. It is surrounded by a delightful selection of traditional public houses, teashops and shops with ancient narrow winding streets. The square is home to the Cartmel Village Shop, famous for its Sticky Toffee Pudding and as a popular 'foodie' destination, eateries include Michelin Star restaurants, L'Enclume and Rogan & Co. Cartmel is also famous as having one of the smallest and most picturesque racecourses in the country. The course has six days racing during the summer months.

Nearby Yew Tree Barn at Low Newton is also worth a visit with its architectural salvage, gallery and café.

Grange-over-Sands (just 2.4 miles distant) an Edwardian seaside town offering a good range of amenities and a delightful promenade. It is a small yet lively community with a surprisingly large range of local societies and interest groups. There is a wide choice of recreational facilities including tennis courts, restaurants and seasonal events. The climate is mild due to its proximity to the sea and the Gulf Stream.

The larger towns of Ulverston (11.6 miles) and Kendal (15 miles) offer a more comprehensive range of facilities.

Just outside the southern boundary of the Lake District National Park and close to the Yorkshire Dales and the Arnside and Silverdale National Landscape (formerly known as an AONB), there are enormous opportunities for those who love the outdoors - this is your chance to live the weekenders' lifestyle all year round!

In education terms, there are both primary and secondary schools in the village. Secondary schools are also in Ulverston and Kendal. Independent schools are at Windermere and Sedbergh.

Grade II* splendour

Nestled in the heart of this charming and sought-after village, and with Cartmel Priory providing a stunning backdrop, Priory Close House is an impressive and handsome Grade II* Listed property.

The listing notes 'parts possibly mediaeval, reconstructed in early C17, with parts of c. 1740' and is believed to be an early C17 reconstruction of the mediaeval Priory's lodging and guesthouse.

In recent years, the property has undergone a sympathetic refurbishment; there is certainly a sense of history with original character features including a panelled front door with top light, mullion sash windows, some with panelled shutters, bolection-moulded wall panelling with dado rail and cornice, a mixture of two and six panelled doors as well as tongue and groove doors with wrought iron door furniture, beamed ceilings, exposed cruck beams on the second floor, wall cupboard with flute flat palisters in the dining room, stone and marble fireplaces and an oak staircase with panelled square newels, ramped handrail and turned and double twisted balusters. These sit wonderfully beside modern appointments.

Set over three floors with a gross internal area of c. 4371 sq ft (406.1 sq m) the spacious and light accommodation is beautifully and stylishly presented and finished to a high specification.

Previously a successful holiday let, now a well-loved home, it's time for the next custodians to enjoy this splendid property.

Let us take you on a tour...

Make an entrance into the L-shaped hall with three reception rooms off. The elegant drawing room and striking sitting room both have wood burning stoves set on slate hearths and enjoy a lovely outlook towards The Priory. To the rear, the snug overlooks the garden.

There is access to the front and rear dining room with built-in cupboard and access to the garden.

Off the staircase hall is a large two piece cloakroom leading into a useful utility/laundry room.

The attractive oak staircase with large window leads to the first floor landing with linen cupboard. A second enclosed staircase also provides access to the first floor.

The bedroom accommodation is split over two floors.

The generous principal bedroom with marble fireplace and built-in cupboard has a four piece en suite bathroom.

There are two further double bedrooms and a three piece house bathroom.

Outside space

The west-facing rear walled garden is a true delight - established with well-stocked borders it offers a quiet haven and the perfect spot for outdoor entertaining. There is a flagged and paved seating terrace and a level lawn with copper beech hedge. A central arch leads through the hedge to a further garden area with 'secret' access to the river bank fronting the River Eea, a small river running through the village.
