Why you'll like it

This three-bedroom semi-detached house is for sale in a sought-after cul-de-sac in Cross Roads, near Keighley. Presented in very good condition, it offers an attractive layout for families, with generous outside space and stunning views to the rear.

The ground floor features an open-plan kitchen with dining space, enjoying natural light and attractive outlooks. Built-in pantries provide practical storage, and the layout lends itself well to family living and entertaining. The lounge includes a fireplace and a large front-facing window overlooking the front garden, creating a comfortable main living area.

Upstairs, there are two double bedrooms and one single bedroom, suitable for children, guests, or a home office. The bathroom is fitted with both a bath and a separate shower cubicle.

Externally, the property benefits from large gardens to the front, side and rear, offering substantial outdoor space and lovely rear views. There is also parking and a single garage, providing further convenience and storage. The plot offers potential to extend, subject to the relevant planning permissions.

The location provides access to nearby schools, local amenities and nearby parks, making it well suited to families. Keighley town centre, with its wider retail and leisure facilities, is within easy reach by car or local bus services. Keighley railway station offers services towards Leeds and Bradford, with typical journey times of around 30–40 minutes, providing useful commuter links across West Yorkshire.
