A charming and spacious two-bedroom stone cottage, ideally situated within easy walking distance of Hadfield Village Centre and its excellent range of local amenities, including the railway station with direct links to Manchester. Lovingly improved by the current owners, the property beautifully combines traditional cottage character with stylish modern touches, including a cosy log-burning stove, stunning cottage-style kitchen and contemporary bathroom. The property boasts two generous double bedrooms, high ceilings and delightful countryside views to the rear. Externally, there is a beautifully landscaped cottage garden with multiple seating areas, vegetable patch, raised borders, BBQ area and stone-built outhouse providing useful storage.
