Connells

Bridle Way
Barwick Yeovil

Property Description

This well-presented two-bedroom property offers comfortable and practical accommodation arranged over a single level. Internally, the home features an entrance hall with storage and loft access, a fitted kitchen with adjoining utility room, and a spacious rear-aspect lounge/diner with French doors opening onto the garden. There are two front-facing bedrooms and a wet room, making the layout both functional and easy to maintain.

Outside, the property benefits from defined front and rear gardens. The front garden is laid mainly to gravel with established planting and a pathway leading to the front door, while the enclosed rear garden offers a patio area, planted borders, side access, an outside tap, and a useful garden shed. These outdoor spaces provide a pleasant setting for low-maintenance enjoyment.

Situated within the BA22 area of Yeovil, the property is conveniently located for local amenities, everyday shopping, and transport links. Yeovil town centre is within easy reach, offering a range of shops, leisure facilities, and services, while surrounding road connections provide access to nearby villages and the wider Somerset and Dorset areas.
