About The Property...

Sitting on a quiet residential street, just a short stroll from both Stoke Newington Church Street and Newington Green, this large freehold home is begging to be used to its full potential and offers a vast amount of space internally with three floors totalling 1,291 sq. ft and offering ample living space, bedrooms as well as a cloak room, WC's and both a bathroom and shower space. The property also boasts an adjoining garage which with the necessary planning, could be converted into additional living space, and there is also a lean-to off of the kitchen, which could also be removed to re-instate the courtyard style garden.
