A lovely character cottage on the end of a terrace of five similar properties located in The Dean, a cul-de-sac that leads down to the River Arle and wonderful riverside walks. Located within an easy walk of West Street, the shops and other amenities, this is ideally placed for access to all that Alresford has to offer.

The entrance hall leads to the open plan sitting/dining room with bay window and fireplace. To the rear, the property has been extended and the kitchen refitted to offer a range of built in cupboards with granite worksurfaces and an Everhot stove. Off the kitchen is a very useful cloakroom/utility room, and there is another room off the kitchen which was used as a breakfast room. A stable door from the kitchen leads to the rear garden. Under the stairs is a door that leads down to the cellar.

Upstairs, the main bedroom is at the front of the house, with two windows flooding the room with light. Fitted wardrobes across one wall provide ample storage. Bedroom two is large enough for a double bed and benefits from views to the rear across the garden. The bathroom is fitted with a white suite and shower over the bath.

Outside, the rear garden extends to approx 80ft and is paved with York stone, with a large shed at the rear. There is a gate providing access down the side of the house.

Alresford is a beautiful Georgian town known for its variety of independent shops, restaurants and inns located in stunning surroundings on the edge of the South Downs National Park. Attractions include the Watercress steam railway, schools for infant, junior and secondary education, several churches and an active and inclusive community. The cathedral city of Winchester is about 7 miles away and there is easy access to the south coast, the midlands and London via the road network. There is also mainline rail access to London from both Winchester and Alton. Southampton airport is only about half an hour away by car.
