Guide Price- £180,000 - £200,000

Top floor living, Juliette balcony, underground parking... this one ticks all the right boxes.

Welcome to this beautifully presented one bedroom apartment in Albany Heights, where style meets convenience just moments from Grays town centre and a short 0.2 mile stroll to the station—ideal for commuters and anyone who values having everything within easy reach.

Step inside and you're greeted by a bright and inviting hallway, complete with a practical utility cupboard to keep things neatly tucked away. The lounge/diner is a real highlight—spacious, filled with natural light, and finished with a charming Juliette balcony that brings the outside in.

The kitchen is sleek and contemporary, perfectly suited to both everyday living and entertaining, while the modern bathroom continues the clean, stylish finish. The generous double bedroom provides a calm and comfortable retreat, rounding off a well-designed layout.

Additional benefits include secure intercom entry, lift access, cycle storage, well-maintained communal areas, and an underground allocated parking space with electric gated access.

With its excellent location and turnkey condition, this is a home that feels as good as it looks—and one that won't stay available for long.
