LOCATION

Fulbourn is a highly sought-after and desirable village, steeped in history and well known for its enchanting and attractive village centre. The village enjoys a vast range of local amenities that are just a short walk away, including a coffee shop, village shop and post office (Co-op), public houses/inns, a butcher, and farm shop, as well as a recreation ground, community centre, and sporting facilities. Another huge attraction is the fantastic schooling options. There are multiple pre-school and primary school options, and the village is in the catchment area for the highly regarded Ofsted "outstanding" Bottisham Village College. Hills and Long Road sixth form centres and a vast range of private schools are available in Cambridge. Mainline railway stations at Cambridge and Cambridge North are easily accessed via car and bicycle and provide fast services to Kings Cross and Liverpool Street. Major road routes A14, M11, and the A1 are also easily accessible.
