£595,000 Freehold

This spacious detached bungalow is well situated in a small residential cul-de-sac adjoining Day's Park and within easy reach of open country and the beach via Shep's Hollow. It is thought to have been built during the mid 1980s and is of traditional cavity construction with external walls of part natural Purbeck stone, the remainder being cement rendered under a pitched roof covered with concrete interlocking tiles.

Swanage lies at the Eastern tip of the Isle of Purbeck delightfully situated between the Purbeck Hills. It has a fine, safe, sandy beach, and is an attractive mixture of old stone cottages and more modern properties, all of which blend in well with the peaceful surroundings. To the South is Durlston Country Park renowned for being the gateway to the Jurassic Coast and World Heritage Coastline.
