Overview...

A fantastic opportunity to acquire this charming two-bedroom detached bungalow, situated in the popular village of Offham. This property is a Scandia Hus design boasting triple glazing throughout with high levels of insulation, boosting the properties energy efficiency.

Positioned on an elevated plot behind a gated driveway, this attractive home boasts a generous front garden with a combination of lawn and decked seating areas—perfect for making the most of the stunning outlook. There's also a private, southerly-facing garden offering further tranquil outdoor space with beautiful views.

A particularly desirable feature is the substantial double garage, complete with two levels of storage and the added convenience of a WC.

Internally, the property offers a spacious, front-aspect sitting room filled with natural light and showcasing the panoramic scenery. The dual aspect fitted kitchen benefits from its own separate entrance, adding practicality. There are two well-proportioned double bedrooms, both enjoying lovely views and fitted wardrobes, along with a modern family shower room.

Whilst extremely well presented the property has the benefit of approved Planning Permission to extend to the front to create a third bedroom with additional shower room. We are advised that works are recognised as commenced thus validating the permission.
